“ Barbara, my second best friend. I think about you frequently, how silly we were in high school. I really miss you Barbara. You were a lovely person and a true friend. Love you dearly

“ Dear Young Family: Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. May the love and support of family and friends comfort you greatly during this difficult time. The Bible also gives us comfort and hope to see our loved ones again right here on earth by means of the resurrection. “There will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous “ May you have peace as you think about this beautiful hope for the future.

“ To Nina, the Young, and McMullen Family, please accept our heartfelt sympathy. As a cousin, my family shared many hours of joy and laughter with Barbara. Nina, I remember when she brought your father to our home to meet us. She was always cheerful and a beautiful person. Take courage and hold on to God's hand. She is now, shelter, in his care. Though time has past, our love for Barbara has never faded away. Gwen Flagg Walker and Family
