“ I can only reiterate what so many others have said - Barrett was a truly wonderful man. We worked together early in our careers at Coke, but then our paths diverged. But when I would see him in the hall it was as if we worked together every day, starting with his wonderful smile. I'm sure he went through ups and downs in his life and career, but you would not know it when you talked to him. He always made it a point to ask how YOU were doing, and to offer an encouraging word if needed.

I think the measure of a person is in the impact they have on others, and Barrett is clearly fondly remembered by so many people. Our world would be a better place if we had more Barrett McCalls!

My love and prayers to his family and loved ones.

“ I attached a few photos of Barrett at one of the metro area's Boys & Girls Clubs. Barrett's giving nature shone brightly when volunteering for a mentoring group I founded at the Club. He, without hesitation when asked, spoke multiple times to teens at the club. He served as a mentor for several years as well.

From discovering that we attended the same church... to joining the lunch bunch a few times when we ended up working on the same floor... to Barrett volunteering to drive a group of us to an annual 5K (and he and Michael D slowing down a little so I could keep up with them at the Peachtree Road Race) ... Wonderful memories of a wonderful person.

My heartfelt condolences and prayers go out to the McCall family.

“ Barrett was ALWAYS a kind spirited person. His humble demeanor & infectious smile were always present. In a time where decisiveness appears to be the rule of the day Barrett was always working to bring people together May the memories of moments shared bring comfort to his family.

“ Barrett was indeed a kind sweet man. I knew him at Coca-Cola also. His nickname “The Mayor” was well deserved. We had many many lunches together there. He had a knack for always finding new places to try. I always noticed he had a blessing before lunch. I believe he is celebrating with our Lord in heaven today.

“ At Coca-Cola we called Barrett “The Mayor”. Walking with Barrett through the building was like walking with a celebrity! Everyone knew him, as he was the kindest, friendliest, warmest man with a magnetic personality and tremendous smile and laugh. I was blessed to get to work with Barrett for several years as well as eat many fun lunches with him! I will miss Barrett, but also know that he’s a man of God and will spend eternity making others smile in Heaven!

My condolences to the family on the loss of Barrett. He was a kind and gentle soul. He loved sports. We always had a good natured back and forth about the University of Cincinnati and Temple University. He was simply a good man who touched many in his lifetime.

The theme is already apparent and obvious...Barrett was truly one of a kind. He had a tremendous presence about him only matched by his smile which truly never left his face. You always felt like the center of everything when speaking with him and he always had fun stories and/or sports comments that left one feeling connected in a sincere manner. He loved his family dearly and we always enjoyed spending time with them whenever the opportunity arose. Our deepest sympathies to the family.

I am very saddened to hear of Barrett's passing. It is a huge loss for everyone. He was such a wonderful person. I met Barrett when he and I were playing volleyball together on the Coca-Cola volleyball league, which was disbanded when the company went through a massive reorganization in the early 2000's. Barrett and I continued to run into each other in the hallways in the years after, and he always had such a beautiful smile and happy countenance about him. My sincerest condolences to his family and friends. You will be in my prayers in your time of sorrow.

What a shock! I haven't seen Barrett in many years but just hearing his name brings up so many fond memories from high school. Reading these comments, it's obvious he grew into the kind of man you'd expect from the way he was back then. Always a warm smile. Funny as anyone I've known. Polite, gentle and kind. I hope to make acquaintance with him again in another space and time!
