“ I didn't know her but I do know her death was untimely and should definitely be checked in to. Prayers for her soul & her loved ones and for justice to be served in her homicide.

I know she was murder, her husband hit on her alot. She would go to work with black eye, she would wear sunglasses, so no one could see her eyes. I seen him with my own eyes hit her. The law won't return none of my calls. What is wrong with this?

I can agree this was a murder. Murder of my mother. Going without justice.

“ My condolences to Belinda’s family. I met Belinda at Panera, her employer, where I am a frequent customer. She was always pleasant and chatty, and we shared many brief but warm conversations about her life and the love she had for her son. I observed her professional growth from cashier to catering manager, a position she was very proud to have achieved. She was a bright spot in my day and I will miss our friendly exchanges. She unknowingly touched many lives throughout her time at Panera.
