“ I know at funerals it is often said how great people are but I can sincerely say what a great man Kieth was. You were a gentle giant and I will miss your “hey buddy” every time we met. I remember when went to a Falcons’ game together, we ate junk food and cheered for our teams. We always talked about engineering and football while our wives were in the other room talking about Dagon Con costumes or catching up on life. You will be missed my friend. Rest In Peace, until we meet again.
