I have known Ben since I was his insurance agent back in 2010. He would always encourage me to live my best life. We became friends and he would never stop reminding me in times of trouble that God was my source. I hadn't seen or talked to him since pre-Covid so I went by the house a few days ago to leave a Christmas card in the mailbox. I felt something in my spirit and that's when I found this. It's 2:20am and I'm deeply saddened with tears. I thank him for all the many blessings and I know how much he loves his children. May God bless you all. - A'Cire Newby, Ph.D.

“ I am so saddened to hear this. I have been reaching out to check on him from months. Ben and I attended the same church and used to work together. I can attest that he was a great person, proud father and faithful church member who always looked out for people, provided great resources, information and job opportunities. My deepest condolences to his family. Ben will definitely be missed. 🙏

“ Ben was a great friend to me since we met at my office many years ago. We always gave each other a hard time while continuously making each other laugh. We loved to talk sports & argue relentlessly about who was going to win each week or who's team was the best. I cherish those memories of Ben but most of all I respect him for his service, his loyal friendship and for always making things right. I will miss you Ben.
