“ To My Baby Boy Benji now my Guardian Angel. You will forever live in Mommy's heart and all of those you touched while here on earth. For while I know that you are in a better place and left unscathed from the tethers of this evil world. Also still grieving from the memories shared with you and all the remnants of you. How I will miss your smile when you wake up and the overwhelming love and joy I feel when you are in my arms or how you would turn my head back too you if I was looking away with assertiveness. Just how you was so smart light years ahead of your time. Now I know that you were my encounter with God I had prayed for. Truly an Angel on earth sent here to bring joy, light and a warm deep overwhelming love to all who was blessed with your presence. While I wish we had more time to spend with you. To watch you grow and how you would be with your siblings. I have to accept that Heaven needed you more and your purpose here on earth was fulfilled. Momma Loves you so much and can not wait until I am reunited with you In heaven and I can hold you in my arms again. You are my Target my Guide a beckon of light for me in heaven. I love you my Angel!!!

To my precious nephew, Benji Xavier Perez,

You were a bright and beautiful light in this world, uniquely gifted and sent to us with a purpose only you could fulfill. Though your time here was brief, the impact you left on our hearts will last a lifetime. My heart will always long for your smile, your determination, and your unyielding spirit. You showed us what it means to give everything you have to accomplish your goals, to persevere no matter the challenge, and to live with purpose.

Benji, you taught me so much about resilience and faith. Your legacy inspires me to strengthen my relationship with God, to trust in His plan, and to keep my eyes fixed on Him. While my heart aches for the day we'll meet again, I find comfort in knowing you are cradled in His loving arms.

I will carry your memory with me always and cherish the lessons you taught us. You'll forever be in my heart, my sweet Benji.

*Love you forever,
Auntie Becky*
