“ My life has been blessed because you were part of it. Your quiet, even-natured character showed me how to be a good human being and how to walk through this temporary life with grace.

My children are privileged to carry your name. Your words, prayers, and support are gifts I will carry with me for the rest of my life.

After all of the years of holding the door open for others, Jesus is now holding the door for you—welcoming you home.

Love Tara
