“ Coach Floyd was an AWESOME teacher and leader! Even though he kicked me outta his class on occasion for simply being a "damn fool" I had nothing but admiration and respect for him! To his family, I offer you my sincerest condolences. May God strengthen you all during your time of bereavement.

“ Noooooooo. I'm deeply sadden by this one. I guess he's given out zeros in Heaven now. It was funny you get zeros but everybody's grade was the same. Lol. He did Flunk you unless you didn't do his work. I said coach I can't take a 80 C I'm a honor roll student. He looked at me and laughed. I said I'll just be damn. This man here taught me so much about life. He saw potential in me and said Mr. Suggs that's a nice suit you're wearing. He opened my jacket up and saw it was the name he wears from Dillard's said how can you afford this suit. Then I had on Johnston Murphy shoe's. I said my dad is a Pastor and he buys them for me. I told coach my dad said if you wanna be a preacher you got to dress like one. He also gave me detention so he could hook me up with a female I liked in high school. Lol. Me and coach to become friends after graduation and his retirement. Coach had a beautiful home in stone mountain area. I was like damn coach this a mansion. Lol. He just smile. I'll definitely keep our memories close and dear. Weeping May Endure for a Night. But Joy Oh Joy Cometh in the Morning. Family cry if you must. But know that God and He Alone will Wipe All of Your Tears From Your Eyes. Rest on Coach.

*"To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord". Coach Floyd was a coach, teacher, and a leader that you could talk to about any issues you were experiencing. He had a keen sense of humor and didn't mind allowing you to see that side of him. We laughed so much in his class, but he expected you to complete the work he assigned. I appreciated his candor, because Coach Floyd was real, and told it like it was. I will forever cherish his memory as my coach, teacher, and Fraternity Brother! My prayers are with the Floyd Family.
