“ We thought of you in love today, but that is nothing new. We thought about you yesterday, and days before that, too. We think of you in silence, we often speak your name.

Now all we have is memories, and your picture in a frame.

Your memory is our keepsake, with which we'll never part.

God has you in his keepings, we have you in our hearts!!

My condolences to the family of such an awesome person. May the good times linger in your heart to get you through this trying moment for now we have an angel and suffering is no more.

“ Dear Jackson Family,

When I think of B.J., I think of great jazz on the beach; his smiling, happy, always laughing face; how he just loved his wife so much; and how I always enjoyed seeing him at Egleston. He was a good guy, and will be greatly missed.

“ God saw you were getting tired, a cure was not to be,so He put His arms around you and whispered " come to Me."Although you were loved dearly we could not make you stay.A golden heart stopped beating and hard working hands at rest,God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes the best. You were the best. We will miss you dearly. With deepest sympathy to Marsha and Family ,we will always be here for you.

“ When we suffer the loss of a love one it can be devastating however it should be comforting to know that God desires all of us to live forever as noted at John 6:40 “This is the will of my Father, that everyone who recognizes the Son and exercises faith in him should have everlasting life.” We should take solace in the fact that one day Death will be no more. As stated here at Revelations 21:4 “He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more.”

“ My condolences are sent to Marsha and the entire Jackson family. Thank you so much for allowing Children's Healthcare of Atlanta employees the opportunity to share in this moment. BJ was one of the first employees I met when I starting working at Children's 17 years ago and he has come to my rescue numerous times. BJ has meant so much to all of us. May God continue to strengthen and comfort both his family and his co-workers

“ BJ will truly be missed at CHOA. He was one of the first staff members there to greet me in the morning. Marsha, my heart goes out to you and your family. May God grant you the serenity, grace, peace and understanding in the days set before you; that is my prayer for you. God will give you comfort through cherished memories. Just ask and believe God for it and it will happen just when you need it most. Laverne Blount

“ May you all gain comfort as you consider God's loving resurrection provision (John 3:16). Jesus confirmed his role in restoring dead ones to life when he said..."I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). God assures us; "Your dead will live....They will rise up." (Isaiah 26:19).
