“ I worked with Bernard and he was always smiling and so willing to help any way he could. I know that heaven has gained another angel. Bernard was as a truly kind and caring person and I was blessed to have known him. Sending his family prayers for comfort.

“ I worked with Bernard at WWHGD. Over the course of the time I knew him, he always had a smile on his face. I don't think I ever saw him have a bad day as he always smiled and asked how he could help you. I have truly missed seeing him in the hallways and am saddened to know I will not see him again. He was a bright light esp. on those dreary, crazy days we see in the legal field. He will be greatly missed. Please know you are in my thoughts and prayers during this emotional and difficult time. God bless you and keep you under his care. Angela Tresslar

“ WWHGD is missing an Angel. Bernard was always upbeat and positive. He made sure he spoke to everyone every single day. He made you feel like he cared about you, which I know he did. He was wise and a praying man and will be missed dearly. To the Family, know that he is watching over you and he left behind great memories of a positive role model. I pray you find comfort in your hearts and can smile when you think of him. God Bless. Teresa Williams.

“ My name is Rod Boyd and I had the pleasure of briefly working with Bernard at WWHGD and he was always a joy to be around and he was always smiling and talking sports with me especially about anything related to LeBron James or the LA Lakers. I now have the pleasure of working with Ryan and I use to always ask Ryan how was his dad doing. I was shocked and saddened to hear of his passing.

“ *I had the pleasure of meeting Bernard about a year ago when he stopped by to drop something off for Ryan. I was so impressed with his kindness, affability, and incredible sense of humor. My deepest sympathy goes out to Ryan and the entire family. I know that this incredible man is going to be missed. With deepest sympathy,

“ My name is Phyllis Cannon. Someone from my office where Bernard worked told me I should share this memory with his family. A short time ago I was sitting at the reception desk of our office and a young man came in asking to see Bernard. I asked the young man his name and he said that Bernard is his father. I told the young man how much I liked his father - how nice he is - and how everyone here really liked him. The young man replied, "Thank you. I'm very lucky to have him as my father." I knew he meant it from his heart... not just a response to what I had said about Bernard... He truly meant it. I told Bernard what his son said to me and I thought he was going to cry. That for me said a lot about Bernard and I have not forgotten that short interaction with one of his sons. Bernard has been and will be truly missed. Everyone loved him.
God bless Bernard and his family.

My name is Robin Williamson. I had the pleasure of knowing Bernard since 2000 when we joined our law firm in Buckhead. Bernard was a positive soul and willing to help any and everyone with a smile on his face. Everyone knew and loved Bernard. He will be missed on this earth but I know he will be shining down among us. I wish his family peace and strength during this difficult time.
