“ *Grandma Bernice was that person whom you would see her smile and your heart would just melt. All the talks , prayers and love she gave each one that knew her. Grandma I'm going to miss the rides to the Ft Lauderdale swap shop to go shopping. Just to see that smile one more time. To know her is a piece of art. Rest in paradise. Forever in our heart. Aunt Bernice was always so kind and loving! She welcomed me into the family with open arms. She was the first family member that I was introduced to 36 years ago when I married her nephew. I will miss her smile and sweet kind voice. My prayers go out to Susan and all of the family.

Love you Aunt Bernice, always in my heart. Angela!

“ My Auntie Bernice was a beautiful person whom I loved dearly and enjoyed our conversations every time we spoke. We would make each other laugh and talk about anything and everything. Auntie Bernice you will truly be missed. We love you even though God decided that He wanted you on His team and it was your turn to bat. Enjoy your Heavenly Family now..
