“ Great grandma words can't express how we feel right now. You were always so loving, patient, and caring. I remember when you use to crack jokes with us, and you use to tell me how proud you were of me, I'll continue making you proud. God knows it hurts. I gained a guardian angel. I love you great grandma forever and always 🥹🙏
💕💕 watch over us, until we meet again.

“ Mom words can never express the depth of my love nor the pain that I now feel that you're gone. You have touched my life like no other, I can never repay you for your love, kindness, your support, the many times that you were always there for me. I know that God had a better purpose for you but I was blessed to have had you in my life. I'm now at peace knowing that you and dad are once again reunited but most of all the day will come when I'll hold both of your hands. Rest in peace my dear mother and know that I'll always love and miss you. This is not good-bye because we will meet again.
