“ Grief can be so hard, but our special memories help us cope during this most difficult time. May the God of all comfort and the love of your family give you the strength you need to endure. (2 Corinth. 1:3,4)

“ My sincerest condolences to family of Calvin & Betty Ray. Losing a loved one in death is very difficult to handle. There are promises in God's Word the Bible that I have found very comforting and encouraging. One is found at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 where it says, Praised be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials so that we may be able to comfort others in any sort of trial with the comfort that we receive from God. The scripture at 1 Corinthians 15:26 tells us how God feels about death, it says: And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing. God hates death and views it as an enemy. Because of all the pain and suffering (i.e. death) many wonder, Does God really care about us? First Peter 5:7 assures us that he does, it says, while you throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. If you would like to learn more about God's wonderful promises that we can all look forward to, please visit the website www.jw.org or feel free to contact me if you have any questions, at lvtsew@gmail.com.

“ Antonio, and family let the gracious love of our God wrap his abundant love around you at this time, and keep you in touch with the fond memories that mom and dad left you . Their sprit is now with him , who is the father of us all, however they will live on immortality through you and those that had the pleasure of knowing them. “ May your hearts and souls find peace and reassurance in knowing that as long as you remember all the good times you shared with your parents, along with all the love they gave you throughout the years. My prayer is that you take comfort in the fact that they shall live in your hearts forever. Peace and Blessings to each and every one of you.
