“ Please accept my condolence for your loss. There are few things in life that can cause as much pain as the death of a loved one. God's word tells us that Jesus felt pain on learning of Lazarus' death and that pain moved him to tears even though he was on his way to resurrect Lazarus. John 11:25 gives hope to you and me in that Jesus said that he is the resurrection and the life, and even though we might die, If we exercise faith in him, we will live again. What a wonderful prospect. May Jehovah the God of all comfort draw you close to him.
