“ Apostle Gus Kilgore, Jr was my first earthly spiritual father. I met him @ 10yrs ago when he was ministering at another church. I had heard a lot of things about Apostle so when I was told he was going to be preaching at this church I got afraid and didn't want to go and I remember saying, they say that man tell you things. Well anyway I was persuaded to go on and myself and 3 other people went. I said I'd sit in the very back of the church. That way he won't see me. Well low and behold Apostle saw me. He came down from the pulpit, walked to the back of the church and out of the four of us he told me to stand up. Noone else but me. I was shaking like a leaf on a tree. He ministered to me and told me my life history from A to Z. Everything he told me was on point even down to the issue I was dealing with on that very night. I was amazed. I asked the girls that came with me how'd he know that. They said he just prophesied to you. I knew nothing of prophecy but he had me down to a T. From that point on I started attending Apostle's ministry New Life Outreach Christian Center and learned sooo much through his teachings. Most of all I learned how to trust and depend on God! A man that I respected as my leader, my Pastor, and dad. A mighty warrior has left me but I know beyond the shadow of a doubt that he made it in.
