“ *Uncle Bobby,
Your kind spirit and warm laughter lit up every room you entered. I've always admired the gentle strength you carried, the way you made people feel welcome, seen, and loved. Thank you, additionally, for your support and encouragement for my music* □

Our family will deeply miss you, but we are so thankful for the beautiful memories you've given us — memories that will forever live in our hearts. You and Aunt Daisy shared a love story that felt almost like a movie — full of tenderness, devotion, and joy.

May you both be reunited now, forever dancing together in heaven, just as you did here on earth. We love you endlessly. ❤️❤️❤️

PS: I'll write you a song that I know you'll love!

Sincerely,

Destiny Tucker

“ Memories of Uncle Bobby: During my most recent conversation, uncle Bobby shared family history. He explained to me several reasons that influenced my father's decisions. He also highlighted the Moon/Henderson genetics athletic abilities and the creative arts including music and dance. It brought him great joy when we shared his teenage love for Aunt Daisy. Infact, one summer before marrying Aunt Daisy he came to New Jersey to work an visit my parents. Uncle Bobby couldn't wait to return to Atlanta to be with Daisy which soon became Aunt Daisy Henderson. Uncle Bobby's love for Aunt Daisy coincides with Jesus's love for the church (His Bride). Just like uncle Bobby is united with his bride, let us prepare for the coming of our groom, Jesus. Rev. 19:7-9. Sincerely, Tula Henderson-Tucker

“ Ouida, Lisa and Bobby, On the Saturday before Fathers ' day You made your father feel like it was Christmas in May. He was overwhelmed with happiness and excitement to have had seen all of children, grandchildren, great grands and great great grands all on the same day in his home and your childhood home. He said" I felt like a King" Even though I have not met either of you I feel like I know each of you and your family because of your father. During my time of sorrow the words below resonated within me. I pray that it gives you some comfort. BY LOVE THEY ARE REMEMBERED and IN MEMORY THEY LIVE
