Obituary for Bobby McDowell

Bobby McDowell was born on May 14, 1940, to Willie C. McDowell and Nellie McDowell in Forsyth, Georgia. He was one of eight siblings—two brothers and six sisters.

Bobby was the loving father of Keith McDowell, Andre McDowell, Danielle Binion, and Gabrielle

Crawford; proud grandfather of Jared Binion, Alaesja Blackwell, Madison McDowell, Amauri

Crawford, and Keyhani Crawford; and cherished great-grandfather of Jared Binion II and Alana

Binion. His family was the heart of his life, and he embraced his role with pride, tenderness, and unwavering love.

Bobby dedicated 44 years to General Motors, where he worked as a skilled inspector with a remarkable ability to understand and assemble vehicles from the ground up.

During his career, he had the honor of holding the Olympic torch, a moment that reflected both his commitment to excellence and the admiration of those he worked alongside.

Beyond his professional accomplishments, Bobby proudly contributed to the development of Monroe County, helping construct roads that served the community for generations. His work left a lasting impact and reflected his commitment to improving the lives of others.

Bobby loved his family deeply. Known for his wisdom, kindness, and unwavering dedication, he created strong, lasting bonds with all who knew him.

Bobby McDowell's life was a testament to hard work, love, and service. He will be dearly missed, and his legacy will live on in the hearts of his family, friends, and the community he helped build.
