“ Uncle scooter... I remember the first the day we met you and I remember thinking over the course of that weekend that my dad brought you down from Atlanta. “my uncle is young” ... “why does he say “bro” after every sentence?”...“So my dad side the reason why my laugh sound the way it do” Lol, you were full of life even then and honestly I believe even in your peaceful afterlife you are still probably full of life being beyond the kindest man! I’m honestly going to miss your bear hugs and goofy laugh, the impacting advice you’d give without realizing you’re even giving advice...I love you uncle scooter its truly a blessing to know a man of your honor!

*Mrs. Moore and family,
The Rockdale RYDC Education department will truly miss your loved one. He always had a kind word for our staff and that infectious smile he shared was uplifting to the youth. We could count on him to always redirect youth positively. His humble spirit to always make sure we were "good" let us know he would take care of situations. While this is a very hard experience, we say to you "remember the good times" and always "reflect on the memories" that only he and you shared. "Look to the hills for strength; your help cometh from the Lord".*
