

Deacon Bobby T Stovall

January 10, 1947 - August 16, 2025

Deacon Bobby T. Stovall passed peacefully at the age of 78. A devoted servant, beloved family man, and respected community member, Deacon Stovall dedicated his life to faith, family, and service.

A long-standing and faithful member of West Hunter Street Baptist Church, Deacon Stovall served in numerous capacities that reflected his deep commitment to ministry and fellowship. He was an active member of the Deacon Ministry, the Men's Choir, the Juanita J. Abernathy Missionary Circle, Sunday School, Usher Board Number One, and the January Birth Month Club. In recognition of his unwavering dedication, he was honored with the Commitment to Service at West Hunter Street Baptist Church award.

Deacon Stovall graduated from H. M. Turner High School in 1965 and later enjoyed a successful career at Lucent Technologies, where he retired as a Production Specialist. Beyond his professional accomplishments, he was also known in the Atlanta community as a Master Barber at Ogletree Barber Shop, where he brought skill, conversation, and wisdom to those in his chair.

Deacon Stovall was a man who found beauty in life's simple pleasures - music, dancing, good food, and cheering on his beloved Atlanta Falcons. He had an infectious laugh and a rhythm that never faltered. It was a joy to be in his presence.

Deacon Stovall leaves behind a legacy of integrity, humility, and faith—a life lived in service to others and to God. His indelible imprint lives on as he leaves cherished memories with his devoted and loving wife, Sallee; children, David, Jason, Sr., Tiffany Cassandra, and Benjamin; grandchildren, Tierra, Tiffany Felise, Jason, Jr., and Cassandra Elizabeth; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives, dear friends, and church family who will never forget the lasting impression Bobby left upon them.
