“ Whenever Mr. Cornish would come into the office we would greet him by saying hello how are you, and he would always say "Another day to get it right" that quote will always remain with me because it is true we all have another day to get it right. Rest well Mr. Cornish you will be missed.

“ He was a great man. I don't have the words to describe the impact that he had on my life. My heart goes out to the family. May you find peace in knowing that he is with the Lord now.

“ I will miss your very being nephew. You lived with me for 2 years when you were in second grade. You were excited about living on an Army post. It was where I took you fishing. May God hold you and bless you. I will forever remember our chess matches. You were a formidable player to the end.

“ Bradley and Nicole and family are good friends of ours. Bradley and I (AL) would often meet to study God's word together and pray. He had a dramatic conversion to the Lord back in the 80's in Newark. He continued to fight the good fight of faith through out his life with Nicole standing by his side. They raised a wonderful God loving family that continues to trust the Lord. Bradley's life, legacy, and testimony will never be forgotten by us. We love you all and know we will all be reunited in heaven some day.

*Love and prayers,

“ My heart aches and it is hard to process Brad passing away. I'll never forget the warmth that he and his grandmother showed me and my sons when we came to visit him and my sister Nicole. My sister is blessed to have been able experience love the way God intended us to. I am proud of both she and Brad for showing us how it's done. I continue to pray for her and their family during this difficult time. Brad will be missed by all but comforted by the Lord.

“ Our hearts are with you. Bradly truly was an amazing man. And while I didn't have the honor of knowing him well, I do know and love you Nicole. Your deep love and quiet, steadfast perseverance all these years have been an inspiration to my life. My heart is with you and your family as you grieve your beloved. May you take each step forward knowing that our Gracious Loving Father holds every tear and gives you every breath needed for the hard days ahead. You are loved deeply. Only only Jesus.
