“ Brad was one of the kindest, most selfless men I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. As a co worker, he was always willing and able to make our environment the best it could be. I considered him to be a man of the utmost integrity. I know he was a loving and self sacrificing father. He would have worked 24/7 to make sure his children had what they needed to be successful. I also know from many conversations that he was a very proud father. He will be very much missed by all of us at Mayesh Cutflower. I will certainly miss him as a friend. My sincere and deepest condolences to his family.
