

Brandon Cook

June 15, 1979 - July 4, 2020

Brandon Cook passed away unexpectedly on July 4th at Piedmont Newton Medical Center. He was born on June 15, 1979 in Dayton, OH to Deborah (Crump) Cook and Willie G. Cook. He was greeted with excitement by his brothers and his sister when he was brought home from the hospital. Brandon made the newspapers at the age of 1 when he played with a leaky garden hose at a recreational park. A local newspaper reporter asked to take pictures of him saying it would make a nice picture in the paper.

The family moved to Providence, RI in 1984. Brandon was educated in the Providence public school systems. Brandon loved to play basketball and often played with his brothers and at the playground that was next door. He also liked to play video games. He and his brother, George would have video game parties and invite their friends to bring a game or money to rent one. He and his brother chipped in and bought the 3DO video game system.

He went to Central High School where he learned carpentry. He received his high school diploma from the Continental Academy.

Brandon was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses in July 1993. He moved with his mother to Port St. Lucie, FL in 1998 where he served as a regular pioneer in the Jensen Beach congregation for one year. In 1999 he was appointed as a Ministerial Servant and served until 2005. He learned the HVAC business from installation to duct work and then became a service tech. In 2005 the family moved to Georgia. He worked for a few companies as a service tech, eventually being hired by Emcor Services Aircond where he worked until his death. Brandon took pride in his work and believed in doing things right the first time.

Brandon supported his mother, making it possible for her to serve as a regular pioneer while she worked part time. In 2009 he moved his mother with him to Covington. He took pride in his lawn and in his flower garden.

Brandon was very loving and kind. He would help others whenever he could. He had a wonderful sense of humor, always making people laugh. He would often tease his mom and his siblings.

Besides his parents Brandon is survived by his three sisters and three brothers: Tavia Barnes, of Powder Springs, Georgia, Samantha ((Lawrence) Sumlin, of Dayton, Ohio, Josephine (Maurice) Walker, of Dayton, Ohio, Kai M Fletcher, of Buffalo, New York, George Cook, of Providence, Rhode Island and Joseph Cook of Ossining, New York. He also leaves his paternal grandmother, Lula Smith of Dayton, OH. He also leaves four nieces and four nephews; Zhane' McDonald, Natara Fletcher, Ruqayah Barnes, Zaria Barnes, Kai Fletcher, Jr., Marsalis McDonald, Elijah Sumlin and Elijah Walker. He leaves one grand nephew as; Noah Ward and many aunts, uncles and cousins.

Brandon was dearly loved and will be sadly missed by his family and his friends.

“ Sending prayers of comfort to Brandon's mother and family. Brandon and I had the same realtor and selected homes into our Covington subdivision around the same time. I remember him assisting me put up my paper blinds on the large windows over my front door when I asked to use his ladder. We would see him working in the yard, have him check our AC unit and he always waved as he passed in his work truck leaving in the morning and returning in the afternoon. He was quite and pretty much stayed to himself yet would assist with anything if asked! He was a great neighbor and will be truly missed. The Jackson Family

“ I wanted too share some things about Brandon that I could remember. One thing about Brandon I appreciated was how mature he was as a young person. He took spiritual matters seriously in our youth. I remember back in 1997 we both did unassisted territory together. Boy was that encouraging and fun.I also appreciated his sense of humor. We had some good laughs .I also appreciated that as a friend he was always open and honest with me. These are the things I could remember about my friend Brandon. I will miss him and I give my love and support to the family.- Mike Washington.. Aka- "Mikey".
