“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. I encourage you all to keep in mind that God made a resurrection provision when "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1John 4:9). When Jesus was on the earth, God empowered him to raise up dead ones, giving us evidence of what he will do on a global scale in the future. God's Word promises..."The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29). God is faithful and always keeps his promises! (Joshua 23:14).

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Brandon Michael Gibson. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief, but you can find comfort and hope in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15; John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow, you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ My condolences to family of Brandon Gibson. I have a son the same age as Brandon, so my heart truly aches for you. I hope that you will gain comfort from the promises our Heavenly Father holds out to us at John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3,4. He tells us that we will be given the opportunity to welcome our loved ones back. Not to a world such as the one we live in now, where death and pain and sorrow are issues we deal with regularly, but to a world where these things no loner exist, "the former things have passed away." He holds these blessings out to us, not because he has to but because he wants to (Isaiah 48: 17 ,18). May his words along with the loving support of your family and friends help you through this very difficult period. I am so sorry for your loss.
