

Mr. Brandon Scott Sistrunk

November 21, 1985 - March 4, 2025

Brandon Scott Sistrunk was born in Birmingham, Alabama on November 21, 1985, to Keith Anthony Sistrunk and Paula (Franklin) Sistrunk Lewis. In 1990 Brandon's mother relocated to Georgia and established residency in Dekalb County.

Brandon received his formative education at Shamrock Middle School; graduating from Druid Hills High School in 2004. Even as a child, Brandon was known as a kind, considerate and conscientious individual, and was well liked by his teachers, classmates, and peers.

Brandon lived such a remarkable life, modeling his accomplishments by confidently moving in vision and determination. He set his focus on the pursuit of furthering his education by attending Georgia State University (Atlanta, Georgia), graduating in 2008 with a Bachelor's Degree in Urban Policy Studies and Economics.

Brandon's academic commitment to excellence awarded him the opportunity to intern with the Department of Transportation as an Executive Assistant under the leadership of the Office of Mayor, Shirley Franklin 2007-2008.

As an Undergraduate Student, Brandon was nominated for numerous positions of service and awards to include the Georgia State Torch of Peace Award 2007. Ultimately, as a result of his academic achievements and commitment to service, Brandon was Honored with the Andrew Young Award.

Upon graduation, Brandon joined the Department of Veteran Affairs, Isakson VA Atlanta Regional Office (2009), where he proudly served as an Authorization Quality Review Specialist for over 15 years.

Brandon, affectionately known by his family and friends as "Buzzy B or Brainy", was a beloved Son, Devoted Father, Cherished Sibling, and a Friend to many. He earned this title as a result of his relentless pursuit of knowledge, personal growth and development.

Brandon had a kind, conscientious, and generous spirit, always willing to lend a helping hand to those in need. His infectious laughter and unwavering love for his family will forever be missed. He found his greatest joy in spending time with his children, creating cherished memories through family vacations or cheering them on at their sports events. He was a dedicated father who took pride in every moment shared with them.

As a Self-Motivated Enthusiast and Visionary, Brandon pursued his Entrepreneurial Passion for business by establishing Select Executive Concierge LLC, while simultaneously serving as a Dekalb County Notary, Managing multiple strategic investments in Real Estate, Stock and Project Management. Brandon was vigilant about executing and teaching the commitment of living a Debt Free Lifestyle, as outline in his Business Model of Cyrus Adams Capital LLC. Driven by sheer ambition, dedication, and love for his family as the driving force behind his business acumen, Brandon soon became the Community "Go To Person" for Insight on Successful Strategies, Investments and Projected Outcomes. Ultimately, his presence brought comfort, light and warmth to those around him.

Brandon is survived by his beloved children, Joshua Cyrus Sistrunk, and Jeremiah Adam Sistrunk, (Decatur, GA); his loving Mother, Paula Denise Lewis,(Conyers, GA); Father, Keith Anthony Sistrunk (Tina), (Montgomery, AL); one brother, Keith Everson Sistrunk (Kristin), (Rex, GA); two nephews, Jaylen Dewayne Sistrunk, (Powder Springs, GA) and William Sir Anthony Sistrunk,(Rex, GA);one niece, Isabella Marie Sistrunk, (Rex, GA) nine aunts and uncles, Victor Franklin(Lori)(Land O' Lakes, FL), Katrina Baldwin(Lorenzo) (Gates, NC), Debra Turner(Pleasant Grove, Al), Gloria Knox(Dannie (Ozark, AL), Michael Sistrunk (Ozark, AL), Marilyn Bohanan(Donald) (Albany, GA), Tiffany Franklin (Newark, NJ), Shantell Franklin (Edison, NJ), Latoya Frankin (Roselle, NJ). “ Condolences to our family and especially to my Aunt Paula, my cousin Everson, and Josh & Jeremiah. God knew, but we never wanted to fathom this day. However, there are some things I always knew about Brainy. I knew he was STRONG. When my mom shared stories of bringing him home from the hospital in Birmingham in Cabbage Patch Kids clothes because preemie clothes were too big. Then him defeating all odds and growing, maturing, and thriving as a spectacular man. I knew he was LOVING. The way he loved our Grandmother, his Gene Gennne! It's comforting to know those 2 are reunited. I know they probably talking bout Buddy, Buddy; getting some tea; & being still on the map. I knew he was GREEDY by the way he would eat up all the meatloaf that Gene Gene cooked (90% of the time made solely for him anyway.) That ninja didn't even consider saving any of it for the other grandkids. He was her favorite out of the crew, and we all know it! I knew he was SMART. That's exactly why we called him "Brainy" he had a big brain with an enormous amount of knowledge that he was humble enough to share with anyone. I knew he was FUNNY. It was cool to be around him. You were gonna laugh about something. I knew he was HARDWORKING. I would come to work contracts in ATL & reach out to him but he would be busy working or working on something to make money. I was so proud of him handling business. Lastly, I knew he was LOVED! Our entire family loved Brandon, our Brainy! He will truly be missed. To my family & all his friends, remember Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. Isaiah 35:10

“ Brandon,

My brother I remember the first time we met and you were coming to have lunch with your mom at the VA Hospital. She introduced us and you gave me that strong black man hand shake.

I was thinking to myself now that brother is young but he is old school in the way he addresses you and introduces himself.

I will always remember that moment and I will always remember you.

Love you my brother and rest in love and rest in peace

I also met Brandon under the same circumstances, him coming over to the VA to have lunch with his mother (Paula). He processed an aura of intelligence that immediately let you know as he knew, I am the smartest person in the room.

He was, not appeared, gentle, kind, and generally concerned about your point of view doing any conversation.

It was a pleasure meeting a person his age that had reached an advanced stage of mental and emotional development characteristics of a mature adult. A grown a___ man...

Brandon, you will be missed...

“ Big Bro I love you and miss you, I cant accept you leaving this way, this soon. Hopefully one day it will make sense but right now it hurts that you are gone. You always had us laughing in school. You were smart and humble, always teaching, always encouraging me. The only thing that was bigger than your intelligence and your ambition was the love you had for your family. I still look up to you and hope I can make you proud one day. I will keep your memory alive. May your legacy never end. I can't wait to see you again and ball like we should. Long Live Brandon S. “ To Know him is to Love Him. I can't ever remember a time throughout his childhood or adult life that Brandon wasn't Kind, Considerate and Conscientious. Brandon was always considerably Quiet, but Incredibly Observant. Absolutely WISE Beyond his Years.
