“ To Brenda family...you have our deepest sorrow for your lost. Her travels are finished. God pick the freshest flowers to plant in his garden. She was a blessed child. You will be missed by many cousins and friends you met along your journey to a better place. Love you more Rolax, Pope and Rose families.

“ Deepest sympathy to the family of Brenda Blount. Carolyn Jarrell and I have known Brenda since she came to work for the state and worked closely with her those 34 years and have remained close since she retired. We will greatly miss her. I'll miss hearing her express her love and pride for her children and her grandchildren. She was so proud of them all. Edythe Hendrix
