“ My sincere condolences to the family of Ms. Johnson. There are a few things in life that hurts as much as the death of a loved one. But it is at these times that we gain comfort from the "Father of Tender Mercies and the God of all comfort."-2 Cor 1:3,4. He comforts us with scriptures such as John 5:28,29, Rev 21:3,4 & Acts 24:14,15. Please read. Also for more on "What Hope for the Dead" please visit jw.org. Thanks.

“ Oh my, I am so overwhelmed!! I loved Brenda, she was so full of life. We shared so many laughs. She spent many hours at my home during our school years. She and my sister Barbara were good friends. My heart is heavy, another loved one gone too soon. I pray Brenda, that you are in a good place and that you will meet up with friends who went before you. You will be missed. Much love.

“ My name is Cynthia Valentine, The one thing I remember about my friend BJ is her smile and her faith. I will always remember she loved chicken n we would always laugh with joy. She loved her family and her grandchildren were her life and joy. Every year she would talk about family reunion how she looked forward to it. When ever I had a problem she was always there to help me, guide me, and pray for me. BJ was a good friend I will miss her. Her smile will always b forever in my heart. To the family my prayers r with u always. God Bless you all .

“ May "the God of all comfort" continue to strengthen you all as you look ahead to a future when " death will be no more" and "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out."(Revelation 21:3-5, John 5:28,29). God is faithful and always keeps his promises! Jesus encourages us: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me." (John 14:1).
