

Brenda Moore Lucas

December 12, 1955 - September 7, 2025

Brenda Moore Lucas was born on December 12, 1955, to the proud parents of John Prentiss Moore and Ernestine Moore, Bennettsville, South Carolina. Brenda Moore Lucas attended and graduated from Blenheim High School in Blenheim, South Carolina. She also attended and graduated from South Carolina State University in Orangeburg, South Carolina.

In March of 1989, Brenda Moore Lucas was hired by Emory University Hospital Midtown. After 34 years of dedicated service, she retired in 2023.

At an early age, Brenda Moore Lucas dedicated her life to Christ and joined Level Green United Methodist Church. After relocating to Atlanta, she found a church home at Antioch Baptist Church North under the leadership of the Reverend Dr. Cameron M. Alexander. She was an active member in the adult choir and the Eastside Riders prayer group.

On September 7, 2025, she entered her eternal rest. She is now with the Lord and reunited with her father, John Prentiss Moore, and brother, Reverend Jerry Moore, who preceded her in death. Those that remain to cherish her fond sweet memories are her devoted mother, Ernestine Moore; son, Marcus A. Moore, and his wife, Michaela Moore; grandchildren, Marcus “Myles” Moore and Michael Alexander Moore; brothers, James Moore and his wife, Cynthia Moore, Reverend John Moore and his wife, Lillian Moore, Ernest Moore and his wife, Donna Moore, Charles Moore and his wife, Christine Moore; and sister-in law, Gladys Moore, who was the wife of her deceased brother Jerry Moore; and a host of relatives and friends.
