Brenda Miller was my friend of whom I will sorely miss. She loved music and art and anything that added beauty to our lives. She was a talented artist and I am fortunate to own one of her original works of art! She was a devoted former member of the Third Baptist Church Music Ministry for many years. May she rest in peace! 🌹

“ To the Family
I met your mother at JoAnn's Fabric in Hampton, Va during the pandemic. To get away from the mundane life of seclusion, I went there one Sunday afternoon. Three other ladies eventually ended up sitting at the catalog table discussing patterns, projects, and life in general. Some of us ended up crying about the pandemic and life; however, we ended up praying and encouraging each other. Your mother was an encourager. She had spoken about her health battles but had a positive outlook because of the love she had in her life. She left an indelible impression, and I would often refer to her as "My JoAnn's Fabric Friend."

“ My memory of Brenda was when I went to their house in portsmouth, I went to pick up my sweet potato pies from my brother, when I got their Brenda was making a fruit cake, and her ingredients were point. Wild turkey. I told her she reminded me of big mama with her mad dog 2020 she used to make her fruit cakes. Rest well my sister. From your brother and sister Michael and Joette claude. Love you and family
