“ Pastor Sims married my husband and I in June of 2006. She was also our premarital counselor. It has been 15 years and we still lean upon the teachings that she provided us before marriage. We will never forget her honesty and challenge to examine everything prior to marriage. We are so grateful to have had her as a premarital counseling facilitator and marriage pastor. She was a blessing to our lives and marriage. I know that she was a Godly woman and is celebrating in heaven with our Lord today. My condolences to her daughter and family.
