“ Brenda was a thorough employee as a hazard mitigation planner. She was complete in reviewing mitigation plans and assisting states and communities with the required documentation needed for approvable plans. She worked for my group until I retired in 2016. I'm sure she contributed much to the Region IV wherever she was needed. My condolences to her family during her recent passing. May she rest in eternal peace 🌹

“ I will truly miss Brenda!! She was the quiet in the storm when I ran into issues regarding registering and completing courses at FEMA. She kept me in line in a compassionate and respectful manner. I will, always, appreciate that. Our conversation unrelated to our employment was always filled with laughter and insight on the many things we talked about. I will miss your insight on the things we discussed. But, I will, truly, miss laughter and soft smile. In all, I know God, in the name of Jesus the Christ, has a true Angel, helping him to help us on this Earth in our righteous endeavors. Thank you, Brenda, for all you have done for me! I will never forget you!

My condolences to your son and your family. May God bless you all during this time. Brenda is in God's bosom. She is safe from all fears!!

"Joy Cometh In The Morning!!

Stay Bless and Prayed Up!!

Sincerely,

“ *To Brenda's Son and Family,
I offer my deepest condolences. I share a broken heart with you all. Brenda was a kind and compassionate lady, a good listener, and friend. We worked together for the past 6 years and shared many life experiences regarding family. She often gave words of wisdom. She will be greatly missed. Just know that the creator is too wise to make a mistake and he is too loving and faithful to leave you alone in your hour of bereavement.*

There is no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

Scripture says Revelations 21:3-4 "And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things are passed away. And he that sat upon the throne said behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me (John) Write for these words are true and faithful.

Brenda and I talked about living this life to live again in God's Kingdom and she spoke of her love for the Lord. Know that there is a crown of righteousness laid up in heaven for those who love the Lord. 2 Timothy 4:8.

I pray for your comfort and strength. May God bless and keep you always.
