“ It's been awhile since I've been home to visit your resting place, but I'll always take today to pay my respects to your life. Six years seems like months when you're grieving. Each day gets easier, but God does it come in waves. Holidays, birthdays, and anniversaries are the hardest. Love you Old Lady. Miss you everyday.

“ I have just learned that my high school friend has gone home to be with the Lord. We met when we were both 16 years old when Brenda, her sister, Marella and her Father moved to Stamford from North Carolina. We lived on the same street and would walk to Stamford High School together. If I had an occasion to attend, I wanted Brenda with me. I knew both Brenda and Palmer before they were married. Such a beautiful couple. I will always remember with fondness a wonderful girl and a dear friend.

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Ms. Ware. There are a few things in life that hurts as much as the death of a loved one. But it is at these times that we gain comfort from the Father of Tender Mercies and the God of all comfort.-2 Cor 1:3,4. He comforts us with scriptures such as John 5:28,29, Rev 21:3,4 & Acts 24:14,15. Please read. Also for more on What Hope for the Dead please visit jw.org. Thanks.
