“ To the Hampton Family and Friends; I know how difficult this time must be for you. May the light from God's word the bible be a guide and comfort through the darkness of your loss. John 5:28,29 gives hope of a future resurrection and Rev 21:3,4 of a day when there will be no more death, mourning or pain.. Jesus at John 11:11 said to his disciples.. "Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep." We can have faith in these promises..because Jehovah (Psalm 83:18)who promised these things...cannot lie..Hebrews 6:18. Please know that Bria is sleeping as was Lazarus and not suffering (Ecclesiastes 9:5) My prayers are with you as God strengthens you in the days ahead. With Warm Christian Love.

“ I offer condolences and encouragement to the family. Please keep in mind... "God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily to be found during distresses." (Psalm 46:1). God's Word assures us "I will by no means leave you nor by any means forsake you." (Heb. 13:5). Continue to "draw close to God and he will draw close to you" as you look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (James 4:8, John 5:28,29).

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. To the family of Bria, please accept my sincere condolences. Bria was so young, and it is heartbreaking to hear that she has fallen asleep in death. Death is an enemy that claims the lives of those we love the most. God did not purpose for us to lose our loved ones in death, but He does purpose to bring back to life our dead loved ones by means of a resurrection. At John 11:25 Jesus said "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." By means of this resurrection hope, God's Son, Jesus Christ will call to those dead in the memorial tombs and welcome them back to life on a Paradise earth. (John 5:28,29) Imagine being able to hold and embrace Bria again! May this hope strengthen you and bring your family closer to God and His promises for the future. Again, I am very sorry for your loss, and you will be in my thoughts and prayers.
