“ I'm going to miss you Cigar.you were my childhood best friend.it wasn't a day we didn't see each other. Cause you stayed two houses down.We did everything together.Played basketball everyday ,rode our bikes,played football one on one until other kids came and joined,we had rock fights,we even fought occasionally but we always made up. No matter what our friendship was your dog named Chico would never let me come in that yard.Chico always chased me when I came by your house We even caught the bus to the Auto Show on Miami Beach.I didn't know About the Auto Show I've been going every since.You used to rank on everybody. You was the best ranker. Our families were close even to this day Love you and you are a Bunche Park Legend your Friend Man

“ I can honestly say I have so many memories to say about me and Cigar but my fondest memories are me and Cigar and Vincent riding our bicycles together and racing our hot wheel cars down the slide at Bunch Park school to see who can claim bragging rights for having the fastest car we rode our bicycles all over the place together and I will greatly miss him and I will keep The Green family in my prayers.
