“ To my sister in Christ, Sis Gladys Smith, and your entire family I send love and prayers for you all, that the Lord will surely comfort and console and strengthen you as you look to Him during this time. Hold each close and hold on to your love and memories of Brianna knowing that in Christ we will see her again in victory and joy.

“ Brianna was such a sweet and kind young lady. She was truly an angel. She will be greatly missed but I know she's rejoicing with the Lord in heaven.

“ What a sweet child Brianna was at A Mother's Touch Early Learning Center. I was sure she would become the young lady just heard about at the homegoing service. Under the guidance of Grandma Gladys and a strong mother like Landy. God bless you all and just know you are in our prayers! Mommy Session with all our love!!!!

“ It takes so much more strength to let go than it does to hold on. I haven't found the strength yet to accept this or let you go. Every time you would leave me you'd say “ Don't worry anymore, Auntie! Everything's gonna be alright now. I can hear you saying those words, but everything just isn't alright for me. While watching your homegoing today I learned that I woke up at the exact time you died and I never understood what woke me up until today. My family knew all about your family, so my mama and daddy are already in Heaven. They'll find you and teach you the ropes. I promise to do anything and everything that I can do to help your family go on. I love you, baby girl! Until we meet again. ❤️❤️🥹🥹”

“ Brianna and I went to towers high school together. We shared alot of the same classes, we talked to each other alot when we were in school. Brianna was always a very sweet and well mannered young lady she was smart and a very beautiful person with sass hunny 💜. I haven't spoke to her in a long time but to hear the news of her tragic passing was devastating. I just want to say R.I.P Beautiful and I want to send my deepest sympathy and condolences to her family and friends 💜
