

Brianna Shere McAnuff

October 11, 1980 - June 19, 2024

Our beacon of light, Brianna Shere McAnuff of Union Pier, Michigan was born on October 11, 1980, to Sonia Nathalee McAnuff Crawford. She passed away on June 19, 2024, peacefully in her home.

As the first grandchild of Gwendolyn Swinnie and oldest niece, Bri set the tone for what it meant to live life on your own terms. Growing up, Bri enjoyed arts & crafts, fashion design, playing the clarinet in her high school band, and writing poetry. Brianna's love for the spoken and written word was a way to soothe her soul and mind. Her peaceful nature was always easy to see and feel. After only knowing her for a few moments you understood why her mantra is "Live a life you will remember!"

She took pride in her Jamaican heritage often requesting family members to bring items from Yard or their frequent trips to New York. Her jokes and laughter were food for the soul. Bri's love of dancing led to many TikTok creations with her beloved nieces at family gatherings. Brianna believed in being the good in the world by sharing love and kindness to others. She embraced each day as a new challenge to better a person than the day before.

Brianna leaves to cherish in her memory: her mom and step-father Sonia and Demitri Crawford of Stone Mountain, GA; sister, Sonia Davis-Bey of Lawrenceville, GA; brother, Monroe McAnuff of Denver, CO; sister, Rickita Burney of Jonesboro, GA; a host of uncles and aunties including, Indy Smalls of Bronx, N.Y., Karen Frazier of Conyers, GA, Shavell Gordon of Grand Rapids, MI, Christopher Stewart of Mableton, GA; Christopher McAnuff of Ft. Lauderdale, FL; Michael McAnuff of N.Y. and Marlene McAnuff of FL; as well as numerous beloved cousins, family, and friends.

She was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Aston McAnuff and Gwendolyn Swinnie, auntie Jennifer Clemmings and Maureen Daley, and nephew Auston Banks.
