I will always remember how sweet my nephew Bruce (lil Bit) was. Never complained. He loved his daughter Quita so much. Gone too soon but never forgotten. Memories last forever. In Jesus Name. Condolences to his kids and the family

“ I will miss Bruce so much. I worked with him at CHOA. He was a blessing to me. Every time I saw him or sometimes when I didn't see him, I would always hear him say "Hey Miss Lilly." It just made my day. He was like that with everyone. Such a pleasant and caring spirit. I worked with him on that Sunday. This is really hard.

I worked with Bruce in Environmental Services on the Egleston campus, I assisted him with some documents to be printed the Thursday before he passed, he was always so thankful for what I had done, every time he saw me he always said, hey Ms. Jenn. I will miss his smiling face. Rest In Peace Bruce Fann.

Bruce was such a pleasant person to be around. He would make sure we spoke with each other by saying good morning; with his soft smile and laugh. I will certainly miss his presence. Rest in peace and love Bruce
