“ This is tough, knowing that Bruce is smiling down on his friends and family with kind thoughts. Bruce always had a good energy about things, intelligent, respectful, compassionate, and multi faceted. I'll never forget growing up with you through the years in Conyers and all the many trips and events we went to through the Boys and Girls club. As a black man in this world you were nothing short of a brilliant success especially in the harsh economy of our society right now. You will be missed and you will not be forgotten.
Rest In Peace and Power.

I give my condolences and best wishes to the family of Bruce and I truly hope you all are being kind to yourselves and each other.

“ I met Bruce at the Boys and Girls Club. When I first came to the club, I was shy and timid in the 6th grade. I didn't talk to anyone because I didn't know anybody. 6:00 came and it was time for basketball. I loved it so of course I went. Being just a middle schooler playing against kids in high school, I was terrible. I felt bad because I just wasn't having fun. After everyone left, Bruce stayed after to get shots up with me. He even introduced me to the game of tennis! Since that day, he took on the role of being an older brother. He would do his thing, but would make sure to give me tips and advice on how to move, not only in basketball and middle school, but in life itself. He would always encourage me to do what I had going on. Nobody asked him to, he just took it on.

One thing I've always admired about Bruce is how genuine he was. No matter what everyone else said or did, he would walk his own walk with pride. He made table tennis fun! Bruce is someone who lived life authentically.

They say people die 2 times. The first time is when you stop living and the second is when people stop saying your name. Although Bruce is gone, he left an impact not only in my life, but in those who surrounded him. As I live life, the lessons I learned from Bruce will live forever.

Long live Bruce 🕊️ Rest In Paradise king. God called a good one home.

“Bro, I'm going to miss our talks about business and growing together. I swear that's all we used to talk about man. Even down to our last conversation.

Bruce was one of the most intelligent guys I've ever met. I came down from New Orleans after hurricane Katrina, and Bruce was the first person I met while attending the Boys and Girls Club and he is the one who introduced me to our close-nit friend group! Bruce was known as the "king" in Ping Pong at the Boys & Girls Club, you felt like you won the lottery if you beat him lol. Watching you grow up as an adult was amazing bro. I remember just attending your cooking event a few months ago with T.I there in the building! && the food absolutely slapped! My boy was sold out of everything by the end of the Night! Too many memories I can share but for another day This one hurt the gang, Love you bro 100 ❤️

- Condolences and Prayers to the Mitchell Family, Much Love and Respect

“My heart was heavy after receiving the news about Bruce. I cannot imagine the hurt and grief that you are feeling. Place your trust and faith in the Lord, he is with you during this time of sorrow. I have not seen Bruce since the start of this pandemic but it feels like yesterday seeing him walk through the door of the church nursery. His charm and personality could calm down a frustrated infant and bring smiles and giggles to the toddlers. I am going to miss Bruce Jr, however, I am comforted in knowing his soul is with our Savior.❤️ Much love to the Mitchell Family from Rhonda Dean and family
