

Bryan Kevin Latham

August 20, 1965 - July 25, 2024

Bryan Kevin Latham, beloved father, son, brother, uncle, nephew, mentor, and friend was born on August 20, 1965, in Cleveland, Ohio to Kaythleen Simpson Latham and Warren Henry Latham. He left this life suddenly on Thursday, July 25, 2024.

He spent his early years in Cleveland, Ohio, Knoxville, Tennessee, and Dayton, Ohio before moving to Decatur, Georgia in August 1976. He attended Snapfinger School and graduated from Towers High School in 1983.

Kevin accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior while attending Cedine Bible Camp in Spring City, Tennessee and was baptized. He continued to attend Cedine for a number of years. As a member of Greenforest Church, he was active in the youth ministry.

Kevin loved to travel with his father and his brother Jeff. He had the opportunity to spend a summer in Japan and traveled to more than 18 countries during his lifetime, including China, Saudi Arabia, Sweden, and Australia. After high school, Kevin attended the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, majoring in Communications and Public Relations and graduated in 1988. He continued to teach in DeKalb county for 24 years. He was a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. He worked for several publishing companies in California and New York before returning to Georgia.

Kevin enrolled at Clark Atlanta University and received his teaching certification in 1998. His first teaching assignment was at Canby Lane Elementary. He went on to teach at four middle schools where he was head football coach. He also taught at Columbia High School and was head football coach there.

He was taking guitar lessons, and he loved his music. His hobby was DJing, and he was very good at it. He spent two summers in Greece as the DJ at a restaurant there. He recently started a record label and a music production company.

Kevin was a loyal friend who looked out for the welfare of his friends and family. He shared his faith and was an advisor and leader who was dedicated to teaching and seeing his students succeed. He was someone that you could always count on.

Kevin was preceded in death by his father, Warren Henry Latham. He leaves to cherish his memory his daughter, Skye Elise Latham; son, Kevin Wayne

Latham; mother, Kaythleen (Kay) Latham; brothers, Jeffery Latham and Christopher (Jordan) Latham; sister, Lesley Nicole Latham; grandmother, Elaine Simpson; Skye and Kevin Wayne's mother and dear friend, Marilyn Latham; niece, Sydney Latham, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I worked with Kevin at MIS Press in NYC. He was the only guy working in an all white, all female environment. He was smart enough to keep his head down.

Despite Kevin's plan to avoid attention, we all loved him, especially for his humor. I remember him telling me the story how every birthday his mom would call him up and go through his whole birth story. I've never forgotten how sweet that was. In fact, I've done the same with my son, thinking of Kevin every time.

Another time, he helped me out by lending me money at a politically fraught office luncheon that we were all expected to contribute to (and I didn't have enough in my bank account to cover). I will forever be grateful for that as he saved me from the judgement and shame I would have felt had I been forced to admit that publicly to the boss and our co-workers.

Kevin had a heart of gold. He spread love and joy in this world. I know Kevin's soul is in heaven and his beat goes on. Sending much love to his family and all who knew him.

“ We lived a continent apart and I just learned of Kevin's passing. I am devastated. Kevin and I met as coaches and became fast friends. He may have considered me a mentor but I learned as much from him as he did from me. My wife loved him dearly. Kevin was one of the finest men I've ever known. I loved him and was blessed to have had him in my life.

“ Our prayers are with each of you, Kevin's family members, as you grieve the loss of one so dear to you, and one who gave so much of himself to others through his work, his music, and his personal life. May you find comfort in the many prayers that surround you and in the promise of eternal life that Kevin now enjoys with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Kevin, I know our family knew how special you were but I pray, pray, pray that you knew the significance of your life, your importance, your worth and the impact you had on all those whose path you crossed.

I love, love, love you Kevin! My life will never be the same nor will the Universe! Life well lived! Free of pain and wonder! Rejoice and rest! ❤️
