Bryant was mine and my children's friend since around 1992, 34 years ago. He guided me with my first business venture in how to manage my money. He also helped me while working at Dr. White's office, as well as helping my daughter Tisha when she started working there too. He helped both my sons David and Eddie, with their tax management. He was a confidant to me, and we shared many life stories through this challenging world. Thank you Lord Jesus for having had Bryan in our lives. Amen.
