“ I am so sorry for your loss. Grief can be so hard, but our special memories help us cope during this most difficult time. May Jehovah, the God of all comfort and the love of your family give you the strength you need to endure. (2 Corinth. 1:3,4)

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Ms. Bunnie R. Lewis. Although I did not know your loved one personally, in reading the words of the tribute left by Ms. Susan Head about Ms. Bunnie, you can see what a loving and caring person she was. Her loss will be felt even greater and by so many others because of this. I truly hope in days ahead, besides the memories you have, that you will also gain comfort from the words of our God and Heavenly Father. He is aware of the pain and is here to comfort you (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). He also holds out wonderful promises concerning our deceased ones at Isaiah 33:24, John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3,4. To be assured by our Creator, Jehovah, that we will be able to see and welcome back our departed ones, such as Bunnie, can give you the needed strength to continue on. I pray that his words as well as the loving support of family and friends will sustain you during this difficult time.

“ Miss Bunnie worked at the Walgreens that I frequented. She always had a big smile and a nice greeting whenever I walked in. She would ask about my family and I in return would ask about hers. I noticed that she hadn't been at work for while but didn't think too much about it since it is the time of year for people to take vacations. I told my daughter about not seeing Bunnie so she called her. That is when we found out about her illness. we were absolutely devastated. I am going to miss her. I consider her a friend. I am going to miss that great big smile of hers. I wanted yall to know there was one more person who loved her. sincerely,susan head
