“ Ms. King, I am so sorry to hear of Caleb's passing. Our paths crossed at Wadsworth Magnet School. Caleb was a grade ahead, and it was a pleasure to see you and Caleb at school and at school-related events. It is my prayer that you find comfort, strength, and healing thru your memories and the support of family and friends.

“ Andrea, I remember looking for Caleb’s number on his back at the Chamblee football games, and our conversations about raising teenagers. Caleb’s smile was always so genuine. I’m so sorry for your loss and pray for your peace and comfort during these difficult days.

Judi Carlson - July 06, 2022 at 09:24 PM

AN

Hey Judi, Thank you so much for your condolences. Kittredge was a huge part of my family's life for several years. You guys always looked out for my baby when he was there. You shared care and concern and listened to my endless stories about his antics. I will miss him very much. Thank you for your prayers.

“ Caleb had such a smile. I remember him studying and working in your office. He would look up and smile when I passed by and waved.

You could tell he loved you and that you loved him tremendously. Y'all had an inspiring bond.

I am praying for you. I am praying for strength, comfort, and hope.

Ann Beard Etier - July 01, 2022 at 11:46 AM

AN

Thank you Ann! Caleb was always so proud to tell people I was Kittredge's Assistant Principal. We made many great memories there.

“ I can only picture Caleb with a smile and have fond memories of him sitting in his mother's office at the Nancy Creek KMS location. Their bond was strong and evident. Heartbroken for the King family. Caleb, may you continue to smile and look out for your mother. May your family be lifted up during this time. Sending love and light. ❤️

Tara Goverdhan - June 30, 2022 at 11:32 PM

AN

Thank you fir your condolences Tara. Caleb reluctantly took German because I "suggested" it...lol...and you were always there for helpful tips I could use to make it better for him. Thank you for caring about him and his progress eventhough he wasn't even your student. I will always be grateful 💕💕💕

“ Caleb King was always happy when we crossed paths and he was very proud and protective of his mother. My prayers go out to his mother & family during this very difficult time.

Stacey Thompson - June 30, 2022 at 11:03 PM

AN

Thank you for your condolences Mrs. Thompson. Caleb could never forget you. You jumped right in and worked with him to help him gain more confidence in playing the violin. He wanted to quit because orchestra wasn't as popular in his school. You even supported him when he participated in Honor Orchestra. You helped him right on through. Our family will always be grateful. Thank you 🤍
