“ I just found out two days ago that my godson caleb n lindsay passed away. It feels so unreal. I met and became his godmom when he was six months. I have had so many dreams about him. My condolences go out to the lindsay family as well as the mother. Me her and the kids had so many great times together. I was there when he took his first steps, when he first stood up, when he spoke his first words, first haircut, first piercing. I loved that little boy to death. And for him to die that way and not see past two is very unfortunate. I miss him so much.

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Mr. Caleb Nashon Lindsay. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. We can find comfort and hope in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8. For more bible answers, please go to jw.org

“ To the Family and Friends of Mr. Lindsay: May your hearts be strengthened as you consider God's loving resurrection provision. God's Word promises a future when "death will be no more" and "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (Revelation 21:3-5, John 5:28,29). Jesus confirmed his role in raising up ones who fall asleep in death when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). Remember... "God's Word is truth." (John 17:17)

“ My heartfelt condolences during this difficult very time.. " The Bible calls death an enemy (1 Corinthians' 15:26) & it is our heavenly father who hold out such a wonderful hope & promises in his word the bible.. When I read Revelation 21:3,4 & John 5:28,29 it brings me such comfort as I hope reading will give you comfort too.
