“ Calvin was an amazing colleague, mentor, and friend to many at Lockheed Martin Human Resources. I'm grateful for how instrumental he was in helping me get acclimated when I first relocated to the Marietta site. He was committed to being an employee advocate and an outstanding HR Professional. Praying that the memories that remain will comfort you today and in the difficult days ahead.

“ Calvin was one of my biggest supporters through out my career at Lockheed and he often told me I reminded him of his sister. I had some good times and experiences under his leadership. May he rest in peace.

“ *I remember this...
Calvin was private and seemingly quite selective regarding his associates and the company he kept. Therefore, he would not have left this world alone or with just anyone. I am certain he left with the one and only Awesome and Almighty friend - Jesus!*

“ Annie, Lori, & CJ,
My heart is still heavy. Calvin was the best boss of my LM Aero career. He often reminded me how much I resembled his mother. Calvin will always be in my career/life story as a respected, dedicated and fair leader; man of integrity. He was kind, compassionate, trustworthy, and intelligent. Were it not for Calvin, my LM Aero career probably would have ended long before planned.

Because I also knew how much he loved his family, I pray the previous time and memories you shared over the years will bring you to a place of perfect peace. I believe His saints will meet again!

Agape,

“ I really don't have words to express my feelings for Calvin. My heart aches that he is no longer with us. But I know he is in a better place and not hurting. He was one of the great bosses I ever had. When he moved on to another position I was always there to take care of him. It was something I did because I cared and never felt obligated to do. He always appreciated it. He loved his family. He will be missed by them. Just remember that your husband and father was a special person to a lot of people. Rest in peace Calvin and know you were loved. Jan

“ Calvin is a wonderful person that was a pleasure to be around while we worked at LM. He and I shared a mutual bond over our children and found a commonality especially about our daughters. He will be missed here on earth, but will be welcomed in heaven with open arms. God bless his family.
