

Calvin Hammond

October 14, 1952 - October 12, 2021

Calvin was born October 14, 1952, Thomaston, GA to Charlie and Rebecca Hammond. He was the youngest of seven siblings. He had three sisters (Mary, Martha and Celeste) and three brothers (Johnny, Jimmie and Herbert). Jimmie is the only surviving sibling.

Calvin and his immediate family moved to the NW side of Atlanta in the mid 50's. Calvin attended R.L. Craddock Elementary School where he met Fred Smith and Robert Jennings, who have remained life long friends until his death.

Calvin and family moved to New York City in the mid 60's. He graduated from Chelsea Vocational High School in 1970.

After high school, Calvin joined the Navy and was assigned to the USS Joseph Daniels. He served for six years, touring France, Greece, Italy, Spain and many other places. He left the Navy in 1979.

Calvin began a career with IBM in 1979 in Atlanta, GA. While with IBM, he moved to Raleigh, NC. There, he met many life long friends including Vivian, Adrienne, Terry Timmermans, Chanh Nguyen, and Brother Andy Valentine who is one of Jehovah's faithful servants. Calvin served as part of the IBM support team for the 1996 olympic games in Atlanta, GA.

Calvin retired from IBM around 2008 due to health reasons and moved back to Atlanta.

Calvin was a great baby brother, family member, and friend. He was always making us laugh and always there when needed. He had the skills to repair almost anything electrical and mechanical, with cars and computers being his speciality.

Calvin never married and is survived by his brother Jimmie Hammond and his wife Carolyn; nieces Katherine Hampton and her husband Hillard, Diane Dawson, Bonnie Holloway, Erica Holloway, Melanie Stephens, Deirdre Escobar; nephews Jimmie Hammond Jr. and his wife Angelita, Devin Hammond, Benjamin Holloway, and Jonathan Holloway; grand nephews and grand nieces Bryce, Bryan, and Raven Hammond, and Isabella Escobar.

He will be truly missed by all of those whose lives he touched. A Memorial for Calvin will be scheduled at a later date.
