“ Dear Uncle Calvin: Thank you for the childhood memories and the love you showed for me while you were here in Panama, I only have beautiful memories of those times when the family got together playing sports in Pedro Miguel and men will gather to talk about manly stuff (I guess) 😊. You will be always part of my heart and who I am as part of the Springer family❤️

“ Uncle Calvin, I had the opportunity to meet you in 2016 as an adult, and share few days and great memories with you, memories I'll keep in my heart and cherish forever. RIP.
With Love Candice

My very dear friend: we butted heads on several issues, as we were both strong-willed. He was, however, someone you could talk to about ANY subject; I considered him very smart, in part for his passion in completing the NY Times crossword puzzle. Then the many times the trio (with Roberto) met for lunch, and going to the boxing matches at a local sports bar. What took the cake was the trio meeting for lunch at Golden Corral (all-u-can-eat): get there right b4 bfast ends, have a little of that, then lunch; step outside to leave, and talk another 2 hrs in the parking lot. Thanks for the memories - rest in peace, amigo Calvin.

Calvin was a coworker and became a good friend. I will miss those times when we would call each other and say "you want to meet up for lunch or dinner"? He would laugh at me because I was always ready to eat! 😊 The last time we met up for dinner, I could tell that he was in pain. I will miss the advice he would give and the laughs we would share but I know he is no longer in pain. RIP my friend! Jeanette White
