

Calvin Bernard Thomas

November 7, 1952 - September 6, 2024

Calvin Bernard Thomas, Sr., was born on November 7, 1952, in Atlanta, Georgia, to loving parents Eddie Thomas and Eddie Mae Thomas. Calvin was a lifelong resident of the metropolitan Atlanta area. As a child, Calvin had a deep love for sports, especially basketball, baseball, and football. He proudly graduated from Luther J. Price High School, in 1970.

Calvin was the life of the party and heartbeat of his family. With his infectious smile and golden heart, he could light up any room he entered. He never met a stranger, always making everyone feel welcomed and loved. Family was Calvin's greatest joy. He shared a special bond with his beloved wife, mother, siblings, children, and grandchildren. He was cherished by everyone who knew him; and his presence was a blessing to all who loved him.

Calvin took immense pride in caring for his family, especially his wife and mom. He was deeply involved in their lives. He held a special place in his heart for his high school class reunions and found great joy in playing softball and coaching baseball. He was always ready for a pick-up game of basketball in his driveway, when the boys needed an extra player.

Professionally, Calvin had a fulfilling career working for the City of Atlanta Department of Corrections. He retired in 2006, after 30 years of dedicated service. Calvin was affectionately known as “Mop” by his co-workers because of his distinctive curl.

Calvin is preceded in death by his father, Eddie Thomas; his brothers, Jeffrey Thomas and Michael Thomas; and his sisters, Cassandra Bryant and Patricia Lynn Thomas Huff.

He leaves behind a loving and devoted family to cherish his memory: his wife, Vickie Renee Thomas; his mother, Eddie Mae Thomas; his children, Calvin Thomas, Jr. (Rolanda), Terrance Thomas (LaDonna), and Quinnton Thomas (Telicia); his brothers, Jerry Thomas, Anthony Thomas, and Gary Thomas; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, grandchildren, and friends.

We love you, Calvin!
