“ Cam was like my little brother, we was cousins forsure not by blood but we knew we was related. Cam is the kinda person you meet one time & will never forget that moment lol. I can't believe another one of my brothers are gone. It still feel like a bad dream. Cam was a blessing to everybody life definitely brought light to mine!! I was by myself @ a school next thing you kno we both in the office together lol. Stuck like glue. I love you cam this for life your name definitely holds a heavy weight in everyone's heart this one hits different but forever live you cousin. <3 #LLC 🙏👍

“ Cam was my art student at Cedar Grove. He was one of my favs. We shared many laughs and good times in the art room and throughout the hallways. He taught me that it was ok to have a good time and still be his teacher. He will always be one of “art babies”. My prayers and love go out to the family and friends. May God keep you all. Much Love...Tiffany Woolard known to Cam as “Ms. W”

“ So sorry for the loss of Cameron. I'm a high school friend of Cameron's father and he always spoke of his 2 kids whenever we talked. He truly loves both of them and I can only imagine how much pain he's in right now. Cameron was his boy. Sending my prayers and condolences to the Snead and Pounds family during this difficult time. You now have another beautiful angel to watch over you. Take comfort in knowing you will see your son again one day in Heaven.
