“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings to us the anguish of grief. Comfort can be found in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Taking in true knowledge of the true God and his son Jesus, assures us eternal life. (John 17:3)

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I encourage you to keep in mind Jesus' words recorded at John 14:1...Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me. God's Word assures us: Your dead ones will live....They will rise up. ~Isaiah 26:19. God is faithful and always keeps his promises!

“ I am very sorry for your loss. Although I did not know Camille, it certainly seems like she was bright and charismatic. No doubt, she is truly missed. At Isaiah 33:24; God promises us that soon no resident will say: “I am sick. I hope that you are able to take comfort in this verse, and the precious memories of Camile.

“ I would like to send my condolences to you for your loss. I know this is a difficult time for your loved ones, but the bible gives us comfort in assuring us that one day sickness, pain and death will no more. (Revelations 21:3-4) The Bible also comforts us in knowing our loved ones are no longer suffering but are in a sleep-like state.(John 11:11-14, 23-26) I hope these scriptures will be encouraging for you and bring you comfort throughout your day.
