I want to sincerely apologize for my previous comment. Upon reflecting, I realize that it was inappropriate and disrespectful. Unfortunately, I can't delete the comment, but I deeply regret sharing something that could be hurtful or upsetting. I understand the importance of maintaining a respectful tone in all conversations, especially in sensitive situations, and I promise to be more mindful of my words in the future. I'm truly sorry for any discomfort I may have caused

“ When I met Candace for the first time, her sweet spirit filled the room. Teresa (and family), please accept my sincere condolences as you all mourn the loss of your beautiful daughter, granddaughter, sister, aunt, niece, cousin, and friend. May she rest in peace and may you all be able to hold on to the fond memories that she left behind. May those memories engulf you and give you comfort. I extend my love and prayers to all of you as you all mourn Candace's passing.
