“ *“A life well-lived is marked by a path of love.”
Carl was a good man. Always with a smile even on those days when I approached and he told me he wasn't feeling that good. However, he was always on task and one of the best at his job. We'll miss you and hopefully you are enjoying your new life with a few people we know in the other side. Until then friend..

“ Marcia,

I was deeply saddened to learn about the passing of Carl. Please accept my heartfelt condolences during this incredibly difficult time. Losing someone we love is never easy, and I want you to know that my thoughts are with you and your family.

Carl was a remarkable individual, and I feel privileged to have known them. Their kindness, warmth, and love for life will be remembered fondly by all who had the pleasure of crossing paths with them.

I understand that no words can fully ease the pain of your loss, but please know that you are not alone. If there's anything I can do to support you, please don't hesitate to reach out. Your well-being is important to me, and I am here to help in any way I can.

In the days ahead, may you find comfort in the cherished memories you shared with Jean. May the love and support of family and friends surround you, offering strength and solace during this time of grief.

Once again, my deepest sympathies go out to you and your family. Please know that I am here for you whenever you need me.

With heartfelt condolences,

Shirl Lofton and Family
